

The FA Charter Standard Club Programme Form Filler

Form Filler

Form filler enables you to put your club's details into the template and print off the updated form. Unless you have the full version of Adobe Acrobat you will not, however, be able to save the changes you have made to the document.

Constitution and Club Rules

There are form filler spaces in:

Point one, where you should enter your club name (this will then automatically appear twice).

Point 8b, where you should enter the roles as indicated, this could be the chairperson and vice chairperson.

Code of Conduct for Football

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

Code of Conduct for Coaches

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

Code of Conduct for Players

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

Code of Conduct for Team Officials

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

Code of Conduct for Parents, Carers and Spectators

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

Club Equality Policy

There are form filler spaces at various points. If you enter your club name on line one it will then automatically update all the other spaces.

If you are writing your club name in by hand, then you should enter your club name: on line one and in the section entitled Equality Policy for Clubs in paragraphs one, two, five, six, seven, eight and nine.

Club Child Protection Policy

There are form filler spaces at various points. If you enter your club name on line one it will then automatically update all the other spaces.

If you are writing your club name in by hand, then you should enter your club name: on line one and in points one, two, three, four (twice), five (twice), six and eight.

Useful forms

Membership and registration form

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Medical consent form

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

The FA Charter Standard Club Programme Form Filler

Team Membership Register

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name and other spaces to enter a specific team and the season for which the form applies.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Training Attendance Register

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name and other spaces to enter a specific team and the season for which the form applies.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Venue Risk Assessment

The form can be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Incident/Accident Reporting Form

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

Annual Review - Players

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Annual Review - Coaches

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Annual Review – Parents/Carers

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Equality Monitoring Form

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Volunteer Application Form

There is a form filler space on line one for you to enter your club name.

The rest of the form can also be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

The FA Charter Standard Application Form

This can be completed using form filler, or printed off and completed by hand.

Supporting Policies and Guidance

There is a form filler space on each of these documents for you to enter your club name.